DEDICATION

APPRECIATIVE OF HIS CORDIAL FRIENDSHIP AND HIS KINDLY HUMOR, GRATEFUL FOR HIS HELPFUL GUIDANCE IN THE PLANNING OF THIS BOOK, THE STAFF DEDICATES THE 1936 AUCOLA TO

WILL HUTCHINS

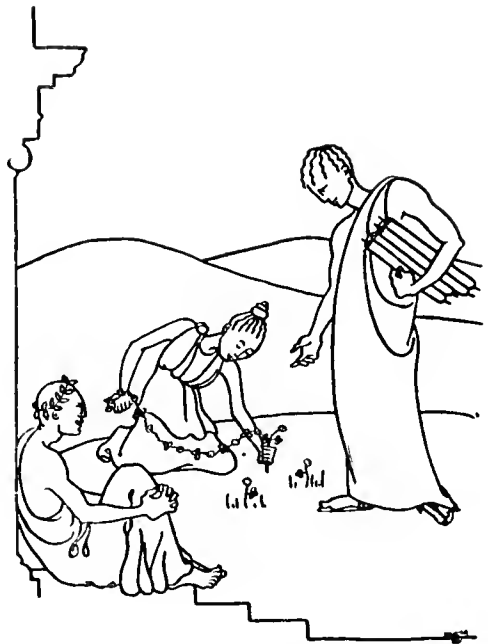

WHO, AS PROFESSOR OF ART AND DIRECTOR OF DRAMATICS AT THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY SINCE THE FOUNDING OF THE COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS IN 1926, HAS EARNED THE TITLE OF "MODERN HUMANIST" BY PLACING HIS STUDENTS ON GOOD TERMS WITH THE CLASSICS AS AN INSPIRATION FOR CREATIVE EXPRESSION

Class of 1936

Elbridge Church.....President
 Georgeanna Hild.....Vice President
 Alice Thompson.....Secretary
 Howard Thompson.....Treasurer

THE expiring seniors have been noted for their variety of talent, which includes genius in things vocal, financial, military, dramatic, forensic, scientific, and academic.

In revivals of "Pinafore" and "Mikado," Helen Shenton and Jackie MacDonald, prima donna members of the class, starred. In the speaking drama, aspiring tragedians and clowns, in the persons of Ran Book, Al Cooper, and Eddie Hopper prospered under the bellows of Professor Hutchins, and kept their audiences either in tears or in stitches.

E. Church
A. Thompson

G. Hild
H. Thompson

The outgoing group has been a paying concern. In their Frosh year was started a series of clever and popular all-college dances which have paid substantial dividends, thanks to financier Worthy Houghton. In athletics Staff Cassell was star quarterback last year. Other men of brawn include Barss, Houghton, Porter, Rhodes, Thompson, and Wheatley. In the field of women's sports, Church, Knight, Fairchild, Parks, Shenton, Thompson, and Wakeman led the van of fair warriors. Lung athletics has been supported by Hoadley, Hopper, Reed, Shaw, Wakeman, and Wheatley, who have helped to build up the enviable A.U. debate record.

Each year the class has boasted a high percentage of honor students. C. Church, Cooper, Reed, Smith, Spiller, Wakeman, and Wheatley were elected to the College Honor Society. Andrews, Cunningham, and Knight were admitted to Beta Beta Beta. Literary members of the group include Frank Hoadley, last year's editor of the Aucola and present head of the Eagle; and Beadle, Cooper, and Wheeler in the Poetry Club.

For its gift the Class of '36 is presenting to the College a library of English literature in memory of Dr. Golder. The gift will consist of books particularly desired by Dr. Golder, of the type of literature which will be good extra-curricular reading for students. It will form a nucleus which will grow from annual additions.

In conclusion, it is hoped that this eleventh graduating class will carry on in this spirit and build up a greater name for American University.

A U C O L A

BBB

Elkton, Maryland

Biology

Class Honors, 1; Beta Beta Beta (President, 3, 4);
Aucola Staff, 3; International Relations Club, 4;
Glee Club, 2, 3; Chorus, 3; French Club, 1, 2;
German Club, 2, 3.

REMARKABLE . . . There is nothing of the mediocre or ordinary about Ralph. Under a quietly dignified exterior, he conceals a world of fun and mischief; under a faintly absent-minded air lies a keen, quick mind, eager to grasp and retain the best.

ALICE APPEGATE

AX

Washington, D.C.

English

Clarinda Junior College, 1, 2; Dramat, 4 (1 play);
Glee Club, 3.

GRACIOUS . . . Alice has all the charm, poise, and gentleness of the days of crinolines and lavender. But she also has all the intelligence and capability of modern days. She listens quietly, speaks softly, and evidences always a willingness to be of service.

1 9 3 6

ROGER P. BARSS

ΣΦΕ, ΠΓΜ

Corvallis, Oregon

Economics

Oregon State College, 1, 2; Class Honors, 3;
Orchestra, 3, 4; Band, 3, 4 (Manager, 4); Student Athletic Committee, 3, 4 (Chairman, 4); Sports-score, 4 (Business Manager, 4); Tennis, 3; Intramural Sports, 3, 4.

UNPRETENTIOUS . . . Roger is incredibly quiet about himself. But he is no negligible quantity. When he speaks—only too rarely—it is because he has something of importance to voice. When he smiles you will find that the event was worth waiting for.

JEANNE BEADLE

Washington, D.C.

Chemistry

Class Honors, 2, 3; Omicron Epsilon Pi, 3, 4; International Relations Club, 3, 4 (Secretary, 3, 4); Dramat, 3, 4 (Secretary, 4; Costume Mistress, 3, 4); German Club, 1, 2, 3, 4 (Secretary, 3; Vice-President, 4).

RETIRING . . . Quiet Jeannie is one of the people who endeavor to hide a remarkably brilliant light under a bushel. Those of us who manage to remove the bushel find a penetrating mind, efficient intelligence, and a love of all things beautiful and ideal. To know in some small measure the true self back of her reserve is to know something worthwhile.

RANDALL BOOK

ΦΒΖ

Alexandria, Virginia

Chemistry

Aucola Staff, 4; Eagle Staff, 4; Dramat, 2, 3, 4 (3 plays); Band, 1; Glee Club, 1, 2, 4; Student Christian Association, 2, 3; Football, 3; Intramural Sports, 1, 2, 4.

SUAVE . . . Ran is self-contained, self-reliant, assured and poised. He refuses to be disturbed by petty affairs, or let anything interfere with the business in hand. But he is no unsociable grind. Ran is jolly good fun, back stage, in the labs, at dances—in fact all the time. Stick around, and you'll see.

FRANZ G. BORBE

Chicago, Illinois

History

Northern Baptist Theological Seminary, 1, 2;
Class Honors, 4; German Club, 4 (President, 4).

SCHOLARLY . . . There is the quality of searching analysis, intensive thought, exhaustive study about everything Franz does. He never turns in a piece of work imperfectly done, is content with no halfway or slipshod jobs. He does what he does thoroughly—and seriously; yet every now and then there is an imp of mischief in his eyes, and his jolly smile bespeaks a generous humor.

ROBERT C. BURBANK

Washington, D.C.

Chemistry

French Club, 1; German Club, 3, 4; Student Christian Association, 1; Westerner Club, 1, 2, 3.

SCIENTIFIC . . . When, and if, you find Burby somewhere other than in one of the labs, it will be at Constitution Hall, or perhaps, on some rare occasions, at the piano. Reticent and unassuming, Burby is to be valued as a worker, as a person.

— 1 9 3 6 —

STAFFORD H. CASSELL

ΦΒΖ

Galesburg, Illinois

Religion

Dickinson Junior College, 1, 2; Student Council, 4 (Vice President, 4); Football, 3; Basketball, 3; Intramural Sports, 4.

STEADY . . . There is a quality like the rock of Gibraltar about Staff—resolute, strong, and prepared for any emergency. There is not, however, anything overweeningly aggressive about him. It is a calm strength, unperturbed, cheerful, amused. Staff will not fail, but he will not be overbearing in his success.

CATHERINE CHURCH

ΔΓ, ΠΓΜ

Washington, D.C.

Economics

Class Honors, 1, 2, 3, 4; College Honor Society, 4; Pi Gamma Mu (President, 4); Brahmins, 3, 4 (Vice President, 4); Epsilon Kappa (Secretary, 3; Treasurer, 4); Student Council, 3, 4 (Secretary, 3, 4); Class Secretary, 1, 2; Spanish Club, 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Christian Association, 1, 2, 3, 4 (Vice President, 2); Eagle Hockey Club, 1, 2, 3; Women's "A" Club, 2, 3, 4 (President, 3); Intramural Sports, 1, 2, 3, 4.

CALM . . . Kit's unfailingly peaceful air is infectious and reassuring. She is unhurried, but never unprepared. She goes about her work intently, wearing that cheerful smile of hers. Kit is blessed with steady vision, a sure sense of values, and the capability to make the most of them.

EFFICIENT . . . Apparently easy-going, there is nothing lax about El. He is always being wanted for some new and difficult job and is always ready with a smile, a joke, and, on the proper occasions, constructive ideas.

— 1 9 3 6 —

G. ALBERT COOPER

Washington, D.C.

Religion

Class Honors, 2, 3, 4; College Honor Society, 4; Aucola Staff, 3, 4; Eagle Staff, 2, 3, 4; Omicron Epsilon Pi, 1, 2, 3, 4 (President, 3; Treasurer, 2, 4); Dramat, 3, 4 (Treasurer 4; 3 plays); Glee Club, 1, 2, 3, 4 (Manager, 3, 4); Chorus, 3, 4 (Manager 3, 4); Spanish Club, 2, 3, 4 (President, 2); Student Christian Association, 1, 2, 3, 4; Anglican Club, 1, 2, 3, 4 (President, 3); Oxford Fellowship, 2, 3, 4 (Treasurer, 4).

WITTY . . . Al is one of the school's most indefatigable punsters and jokers. His talent for fun has rocked many a class to its foundations. But that is not all of Al. He thinks deeply and clearly. His sense of justice and fairness tempers all he does.

KATHERINE CUNNINGHAM

ΦΜ, BBB

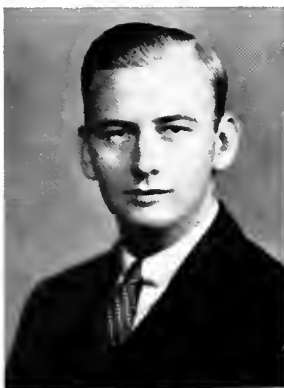

Washington, D.C.

Biology

Beta Beta Beta (Vice President, 3, 4); International Relations Club, 3, 4; Intramural Sports, 1, 2, 3, 4.

QUIET . . . Kay goes so silently about her work that if she weren't such a thoroughly pleasant person we might never notice her. It is worth the effort to seek her out. Kay is one of the rare people whom we classify as givers- she is lavish of her time, energy, ideas, and labor.

HOWARD DUCKWORTH

Jesters

Providence, Rhode Island

Economics

Hamilton House Association, 3 (President, 3);
Dramat, 2 (1 play); Student Christian Association,
2, 3; Football, 2; Intramural Sports, 1, 2, 3, 4.

CAREFREE . . . Ducky embodies the best of that word. He refuses to worry needlessly, has a persistent optimism, and a rollicking, infectious good humor for all times. There is nothing of the slacker in his carefreeness, but rather an activity and progressive accomplishment refusing to be hindered by petty cares.

MRS. JOSEPH F. ELWARD

Washington, D.C.

English

Marywood College, 1, 2, 3; International Relations Club, 4.

INTENT . . . Here is one of those persons who seem intent on the higher learning to the exclusion of everything else. This is a pity, for the sense of humor which she brings to bear on her studies and class work, intimates that she would be an asset to any project.

1 9 3 6

Phi Mu (Treasurer, 4); Aucola Staff, 3; Orchestra, 1, 2, 3; Glee Club, 3; French Club, 1, 2, 3, 4; Spanish Club, 3, 4; Student Christian Association, 1, 2, 3, 4; Westerner Club, 1, 2, 3, 4; Women's "A" Club, 3, 4; Intramural Sports, 1, 2, 3, 4

CONSTRUCTIVE . . . Jean is a builder, a tireless worker in a good cause. No job can loom too large for her, and no task to which she turns her hand will go unfinished. She is gentle and coöperative, untiringly patient, and never out of sorts.

Washington, D.C.

Economics

Eagle Staff, 1, 2; Glee Club, 2, 3; Brecky Club, 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramural Sports, 1, 2, 3, 4.

CHEERFUL . . . You can't down Phil. In any adversity he manages to wear the well-known Gilbert smile. He dashes madly around the campus, grinning merrily at all he meets, with a joke on his lips, ready for anything. Yet he is by no means entirely the funster—Phil can be serious when need be, and often is.

Economics

Class Honors, 2; Women's House Government Association, 3 (Secretary, 3); Glee Club, 3, 4; Student Christian Association, 3, 4; Intramural Sports, 2, 3, 4.

SUNNY . . . Little Ginny, of the blonde hair, aloof manner, and joyous laugh, has a perpetual air of bright happiness about her as she whisks about her daily life. Beneath her quick hand, tasks are finished before you know it, and Ginny smiles and goes on to the next assignment.

GEORGEANNA HILD

Washington, D.C.

History

Class Honors, 1; Class Vice President, 4; Aucola Staff, 3; Glee Club, 1, 2, 3, 4; Chorus, 3, 4; French Club, 1, 2, 3, 4 (Secretary, 3); Anglican Club, 1, 2, 3, 4 (Vice President, 3; President, 4); Student Christian Association, 1, 2.

INDISPENSABLE . . . No worthy project would be complete without Georgie's broad smile, her cheerful expertness, and her readiness to join all enterprises. Minor mishaps do not ruffle her, and major ones just do not occur when Georgie is on the job.

FRANK TALIAFERRO HOADLEY

ΔΣΠ, III M

Chevy Chase, Maryland English and Political Science

Class Honors, 1, 2; Brahmins, 3, 4; Publications Honor Fraternity, 4; Aucola Staff, 1, 2, 3, 4 (Editor, 3; Advisory Editor, 4); Eagle Staff, 1, 2, 3, 4 (Assistant Editor, 2; Managing Editor, 4); Eyrie, 4; Debate, 1, 2, 3, 4 (Assistant Manager, 3; 17 debates); International Relations Club, 2, 3, 4; Dramat, 3 (1 play); French Club, 1, 2, 3, 4.

TIRELESS . . . We agree that Frank is a glutton for work. Laboring endlessly himself, he inspires others to do their best, and those who work with him know how considerate and quick to see values he is. Always alert for improvement, farsighted and thoroughgoing, Frank has been not only a leader but a champion of the best.

1 9 3 6

DONALD HOLLAR

Hazleton, Pennsylvania

Religion and Philosophy

Dickinson Junior College, 1, 2; Band, 3; Oxford Fellowship, 3.

SUBTLE . . . Behind a slightly cynical and always amused expression, Donn conceals a rather rare sense of humor that needs none of the sharpening he can give it at the expense of his friends. Quiet, dignified, impressive in unsmiling silence that is not silence, Donn has a wicked twinkle in his eye, and a quick, alert mind to solve problems.

VERSATILE . . . Eddie has so successfully filled his post as grand comrade, and co-worker-in-extraordinary, that he has left us no space to say what should be said.

Washington Missionary College, 1, 2, 3; Student Peace Committee, 4 (Chairman, 4).

DECISIVE . . . Keenly aggressive in his chosen lines, Howard leaves no stone unturned to produce the effect or result he desires. He has the quality of going straight to the point and remaining there with undeviating sincerity and commendable accuracy of execution.

Class Honors, 3; Beta Beta Beta (Secretary-Treasurer, 3, 4); French Club, 2, 3, 4; Spanish Club, 2, 3, 4 (Secretary-Treasurer, 3; Vice President, 4); Student Christian Association, 1, 2, 3, 4; Women's "A" Club, 3, 4 (Treasurer, 4); Eagle Hockey Club, 2, 3, 4; Intramural Sports, 2, 3, 4.

STARTLING . . . From her vivid coloring to the deeds she does, Knighty will take your breath away. There is nothing mediocre or half-way about Knighty. She doesn't blow her own horn, or ever talk about herself, but if you'll look you'll find that nothing is too big for her to tackle, or too small to be well done.

MARGARET ELIZABETH KOBER

GENTLE . . . Berenice is another one of those lavender and old lace girls. She makes you want to protect her—yet wait 'til you know her, and you'll find there is no yielding weakness in her make-up. The old-fashioned quality in her air and carriage has none of the conservative cowardice of those who are afraid to progress. It has life and motion, and serves to temper and make sweet her daily contacts.

TONAL . . . There is a song quality about everything Margie does, from her singing to the smallest task of the day. Graceful, poised, calm, interested, all these apply to her yet do not fully describe her. ## Class of 1937

James Spratt.....President
Frances Page.....Vice President
Margaret Walker.....Secretary
William Leith.....Treasurer

GENIAL Joe Thomas, '34, led the Class of 1937 on its way to political independence, while Eddie Hopper, '36, did his best to provide needed discipline for the Frosh, who retaliated by hanging him in effigy. The Freshmen became completely free from upper class dominance after Field Day, when they won two out of the three events. The social climax of the year, the Star Dance, with silver and scarlet decorations was held March 22, Lee Fields' music presiding.

In the second year, the disciplinary efforts of the Sophomores were made difficult by the huge freshman class, but Sidney Sachs, who also served as President, struggled valiantly to keep the green tide in check. Athletic prowess on the varsity basketball squad was exemplified by Bob Hill and Bill Leith. To finish off a successful year the Sophomore Circus Dance was given, with Church's orchestra. At this original function campus leaders found themselves caricatured on billboards in the gym.

As Juniors, the "thirty-sevens" were represented by Winslow on the varsity gridiron, and by Zink and Leith on the basketball court, while the feminine contingent came through with intramural honors in both hockey and basketball. In addition, Juniors headed the Women's House Government Association, the Women's "A" Club, the Eyrie Staff, the Spanish Club, and both the Jesters and Swagger Clubs. The ingenuity of the class resulted in a lighted Christmas tree for the campus and in the clever "Jolly Juniors' Jail Jamboree" featuring gangster characters and penitentiary atmosphere. This was held during February. The formal reception for the class by Chancellor and Mrs. Gray and the Junior Prom at the Shoreham Hotel on April 17th were the highlights of the social season. With this background, the Class of 1937 expects to try to fill completely the vacated shoes of the graduating class.

EARLY in the school year of 1934-35 the Class of 1938 showed their lack of respect for their reverend overlords, the Sophs. Fretting impatiently under bondage imposed by the terrible Sachs, the underdogs discarded their symbols of inferiority after the victory over the upperclassmen on Field Day.

More constructive fields soon claimed the freshman talents. Leading roles in "Candida" and "Much Ado About Nothing" were played by '38 Thespians.

One member was the first freshman ever to debate on the varsity squad. Six classmen worked on the Aucola staff and twenty-one on the Eagle. The most amusing feature of the year was the coronation of little William Briggs as Queen of the May in the take-off on the women's festival.

In spite of the usual drop in enrollment, the school spirit of the class rather increased than lessened in its sophomore year. Football huskies Applegate, Carlo, Dick, Hanawalt, Hansborough, and Winslow were among the stars of the A.U. football squad. The touch football title easily went to the class; Bee Craig made the all-D.C. hockey team and played with Cohen, Humphreys, Laise, and Wyman on the varsity team.

Carrying on the class dramatic tradition, Bill Thompson and Rowland Roberts acted in "Is Life Worth Living?" Nor was scribbling talent unavailable. Bartle became one of the most popular Eagle columnists, and Frank Diggs, Lew Frank, and Raymond Wrenn are Assistant Editors. Bernie Carroll is becoming more and more popular as a rhythm artist.

Later in the season, Edwards, Harris, and Lee were invaluable to the basketball squad. Jane Getz and Kathryn Ingberg helped make the varsity debate squad well-nigh invulnerable, and class honors were earned by Aiken, F. Church, Copenhafer, Getz, Kauffman, Laise, Maris, Masi, and J. Williams. The Sophomore Spring Cruise in March set a high standard for class dances. The nautical theme was carried out to perfection, insuring the success of the event.

MATRICULATING on Friday the thirteenth may seem unlucky to some people but for the largest beginning class in the history of A.U. it was a lucky omen, as is evidenced by the many and various activities in which the Freshmen have taken part.

Although at first somewhat subdued by the green hair-ribbons, name tags, and dinks, the first milestone in the class history was marked by the winning of the women's hockey game and the tug-of-war on Field Day, which was the occasion for a nocturnal, kidnaping warfare between the victorious Frosh and the humiliated upperclassmen.

Many Freshmen tried out for the football team and seven became the mainstay of the varsity. They were Toner, Bartlett, Howard, Sitnik, Maize, Yackel, and Shoop. Those "thirty-niners" who seem destined to go far in their basketball careers are Bartlett, Benscoter, Bastian, Hudson, and Yackel.

The frosh women were not far behind the men. With enthusiasm many participated in hockey. Among the star players were Thornton, Brundage, Murphy, Palmer, and Wells.

The Freshmen have turned to other fields besides that of athletics. Six Freshmen took part in the fall play, "Is Life Worth Living?" These were Johnston, Keker, Knockey, Omo, Patton, and Strong. The Eagle and Aucola staffs also received the benefit of freshman assistance.

The musically inclined members of the class are taking part not only in the Orchestra and Band, but also in the chapel choir and glee clubs. Other campus organizations likewise receive freshman support. Their initial social effort, one of the successful affairs of the academic year, was held in May to the tune of a moderne theme.

The Aucola

OUT of a mass of copy, rubber cement, photographs, mounting board, flying typewriter keys, frantic telephone calls to Baltimore, carbon paper, lists, dummy sheets, pencils, pens, rulers, scissors, glue, paste, erasers, catalogues, dictionaries, thesauri, student directories, mistakes, harsh words and lost tempers has arisen the 1936 Aucola. We hope you will enjoy and approve it, but there is very little you can do about it if you don't. We can at least say that the staff has labored long, and to the best of its abilities, however poor you may consider them.

Whatever you think of it, we have had a limited amount of fun and an unlimited amount of labor, which has resulted, we hope, in an Aucola which will please some of the people some of the time.

There have been some changes made: division pages in three colors, drawings instead of photographic views, honorary fraternities placed in the general fraternity section rather than among the organizations, illustrated calendar section, and finally a greatly increased number of pictures.

But you can observe all these things for yourself by looking at your Aucola. So we will merely say here that there are worse things than working on a year book—there must be—and that we wish the strugglers next year better luck than we've had.

The Eagle

THE Eagle's tenth year has been notable for changes and achievements. For the first time the editorial board and business boards have been placed under the supervision of one officer, the Managing Editor, who serves to co-ordinate the two staffs. In accordance with this system, four assistant editors have been trained by the year's work in the various editorial and business fields, in order to compete for the position of Managing Editor next year.

A reference library of cuts and pictures has been established under Rowland Roberts, making the use of an increased number of cuts possible. In connection with this, a series of old pictures of the campus was printed.

Among the outstanding issues of the year were the Tenth Anniversary Issue and the Co-ed Issue. The latter was published entirely by the women members of the staff.

Serving The Eagle as faculty adviser this year, Dean Woods allowed the staff to set a new high standard for student direction. Making no effort to censor the contents of news or editorials before or after publication, he nevertheless made himself always available to the editors for advice and suggestions.

The business board made remarkable progress in wiping out the major part of a deficit of several years' standing.

The Eagle tied for second place within its class in the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association. Frank Hoadley and Frank Diggs represented the Eagle at the Association's convention. Diggs was elected to the executive committee. The Eagle also belongs to the Associated Collegiate Press.

ONE of the most recent publications on the campus is The Eyrie, a student literary magazine. Its purpose is to act as an organ through which the literary and artistic abilities of the college may find expression, and to introduce to the students a new cultural field in the line of original work.

The publication is the responsibility of the school as a whole. The staff members are chosen irrespective of classes, on a basis of ability.

The Eyrie is issued twice a year, once in the fall and once in the spring.

THE Women's House Government Association, governing body for the women residents of the college, innovated a new social program this year. This included a formal dinner-dance in place of the spring tea-dance, and a formal dinner before the Campus Concert in April.

Other traditional events were repeated with changes and improvements. The Christmas Candlelight Service was presented with different formation, costumes, and ceremony arranged by Frances Page. A Hallowe'en party was held in the private dining room, with prizes for the best costumes.

The formal dinner before the Christmas Play, and the annual dormitory party around the Christmas tree were held as usual.

The varsity squad debated two questions this year: "Resolved, that Congress should have power to override by a two-thirds vote decisions of the Supreme Court declaring acts of Congress unconstitutional"; "Resolved, that married women holding jobs should be replaced by persons having no other means of support."

The schools debated were: Pennsylvania State, New York University, St. Francis (2), Washington College (2), University of Maryland, Swarthmore, South Carolina, Wayne, Allegheny (2), Hampden-Sydney (2), Wooster, Emory, Cincinnati, Bucknell, and Richmond.

THE International Relations Club sponsors a program designed to interest the students in world affairs. The club discusses important foreign events at its monthly meetings and has a special collection of books in the library which any one interested in foreign affairs may use.

In addition to student participation, well known authorities are invited to address the club. Mr. Constantine Brown of the "Star," Senator William H. King of Utah, and Dr. Charles C. Tansill of the Graduate School led discussions on various phases of world affairs.

Forty new members fulfilled the requirements for entrance into the club and were formally initiated.

Rowland Roberts.....Student Director

DURING the 1935-36 season the Orchestra provided appropriate accompaniment for the Dramatic Club productions of "Is Life Worth Living?" and "The Tempest," and played at the commencement entertainment and exercises.

The works of eminent composers were studied and analyzed by means of periods of sight reading. The repertoire of the orchestra has been built principally on chamber music, because of the size of the organization.

A string trio, composed of Mary Allen, Barbara Loomis, and Rowland Roberts has played for outside engagements, and has been appointed the official trio of the French Club.

LAST spring the Band presented in the Grecian Theatre the first open air concert ever to be given at the College. Featured in the concert was the brass quartet, consisting of Roy Wiseman and Pierce Gelsinger, trumpets, Melvin Wheatley, baritone, and Leonard Harris, trombone.

During the 1935 football season the band played at all the home games, and made its first out-of-town trip, to the St. John's game at Annapolis, where it aided the morale of the cheering section.

Increased progress has been made under the leadership of Mr. Thurmond, Director of the new U. S. Navy School of Music.

THE mixed chorus, composed of selected members of the men's and women's glee clubs, began its second concert season with a short trip into New Jersey. Concerts and high school programs were presented in East Orange and Pemberton. The chorus and the two glee clubs coöperated to give a concert at the Union Methodist Episcopal Church on March 18.

The choral club presented Gounod's "Gallia" at the chapel service preceding the Easter vacation.

Later in the spring, the chorus made another concert trip, singing at Hagerstown and Baltimore.

The season concluded with the annual campus concert given by the chorus and glee clubs in conjunction.

THIS year, as is customary, the French Club had many varied activities, ranging from plays and speeches to outdoor picnics. One of the outstanding items on the program was the production of the famous second act of Molière's "Le Malade Imaginaire," under the direction of Professor Hutchins. Another meeting which broke traditions came in December when the French Club joined with the Spanish Club and a group of German students to present an international meeting at which pantomimes and carols of the different nations were featured.

THE Poetry Club is a social group, founded for the purpose of aiding its members in the writing of poetry. At regular monthly meetings this year, in addition to the reading and criticism of original poetry, various speakers were heard. Among them were Miss Brown, Betty Gray, Mrs. Sumner, and Mr. Hutchins. At the meeting held April 19th, Mrs. Vachel Lindsay, wife of the late poet, was a guest of the club.

Members of the Poetry Club participated in a contest sponsored by the American Association of University Women. Betsy Winter won second honorable mention in this contest for her poem, "Another Day"; Owenita Harrah's "Purgatory" and Patricia Murphy's "Poplar in the Moonlight" received high praise from the judges.

HANDICAPPED by the departure of President John Meininger during the first semester, the Brecky Club, consisting of graduates of Central High School, was reorganized at a meeting early in the second semester. At that time Mary Aiken, acting president in Meininger's absence, was unanimously acclaimed president.

As in former years, the purpose of the club has been to continue high school friendships, and to provide publicity for American University at Central. With these aims in view, the Brecky Club presented a program at Central, and in cooperation with the Westerner Club promoted a tea dance in the spring.

THE Westerner Club, strengthened by the addition of a large number of Western High School graduates in the Freshman class, set about, this year, to fulfill its purpose of interesting high school students in American University.

Members followed the usual method of individually visiting Western High School. Together with the Brecky Club, the annual Brecky-Westerner Dance was held in the latter part of April.

To keep alive friendships started in High School, social meetings were called from time to time, most important of these being a wiener roast, given on Friday, December 13, midst much rain and mud, at a cabin in Rock Creek Park.

THE purpose of the College Honor Society is to stimulate intellectual endeavor among the students of the College. Its membership is made up of the faculty of the College who belong to Phi Beta Kappa or Sigma Xi, and seniors who have made a high scholastic rating.

Esther Smith and Melvin Wheatley were elected in December, 1935. In February, Catherine Church, Albert Cooper, Harriet Reed, Margaret Spiller, and Mary Lesta Wakeman were elected to membership.

Initiation was held on the nineteenth of March and was followed by an open meeting of the Phi Beta Kappa Society of the District of Columbia.

Brahmin Honor Society

Worthington Houghton.....President
Catherine Church.....Vice President
Mary Lesta Wakeman.....Secretary-Treasurer

ORGANIZED in the spring of 1930 for the purpose of recognizing outstanding qualities of leadership, service, scholarship, and character, "Brahmins" includes as members the outstanding campus leaders of extra-curricular activities. Applications for membership are considered by Brahmin members on the basis of point system which closely resembles that used by Omicron Delta Kappa, National Honorary Leadership Fraternity.

The Brahmin Honor Society requires for admission a grade index of 3.50, however, as well as leadership and the approval of the members.

The program of the Society consists of cooperation with the faculty in studying student problems, stimulating progress, and promoting the interests of the College.

Members: Catherine Church, Frank Hoadley, Edward Hopper, Worthington Houghton, Sidney Sachs, Carl Stevens, Mary Lesta Wakeman, Melvin Wheatley.

Delta Sigma Rho

Arthur S. Flemming.....	President
Mary Lesta Wakeman.....	Secretary-Treasurer
Frank Hoadley.....	Historian
Dr. George B. Woods.....	Faculty Adviser
Orville A. Hitchcock.....	Debate Coach

THE highest honor a debater at American University can receive is election to the local chapter of Delta Sigma Rho, the National Honorary Forensic fraternity. Membership in Delta Sigma Rho requires a high scholastic standing, two years' active work on the varsity squad, and participation in at least three intercollegiate contests.

The local chapter sponsors all debating activities on the campus. This year it held the first annual Poetry Reading Contest, open to the members of the freshman public speaking classes. Lansing Hall was winner of the contest, and received the five-dollar prize. Delta Sigma Rho also sponsored the annual debate banquet held the last week in April.

Alpha Upsilon Chapter

Ralph Andrews.....	President
Katherine Cunningham.....	Vice President and Historian
Louise Knight.....	Secretary-Treasurer

BETA BETA BETA is a national honorary biological fraternity. Requirements for election into the organization are superior work in the Department of Biology and a genuine interest in science.

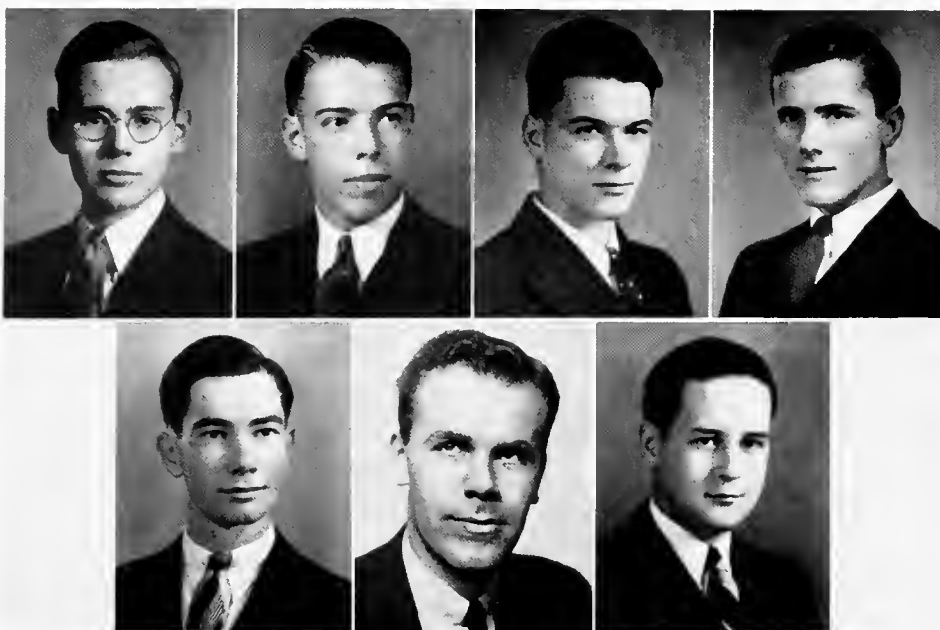

The Science Show, which is sponsored biennially by the chapter, was held in the latter part of April. This open-house of all the science departments attracted instructors and students from all the educational institutions in the vicinity.

To further general interest in biology on the campus, an open forum discussion on some topic of popular interest is held each semester. Throughout the year evenings are set aside for chapter discussions of a more technical nature.

Members: Miss Cornelia M. Cotton, Dr. Earl A. Dennis, Ralph Andrews, Katherine Cunningham, Stephen Hatchett, Louise Knight, Carl Stevens, Robert Stevenson.

Associate Members: Mary Evaul, Robert Hill, Howard Johnson.

Publications Honor Fraternity

Frank Hoadley.....	President
Worthington Houghton.....	Vice President
Carl Stevens.....	Secretary
Haylett Shaw.....	Treasurer

TO fill the need for an honorary organization in the field of student publications, six members of the Aucola and Eagle staffs last fall organized the Publications Honor Fraternity, which was approved by the faculty on January 27, 1936.

Junior and senior men, with a grade index of 3.0 or higher, who have served two or more years on the Eagle or Aucola, achieving a high position on one of those publications, are eligible. Members of the Eyrie staff will be eligible when that publication has been issued for two years. Following the policy of Pi Delta Epsilon, National Honorary Journalistic Fraternity, the P.H.F. admits no women members. The organization does, however, honor both men and women on campus publications through announcement of an annual honor roll.

Interfraternity Council

Lucile Stalker..... Chairman
Esther Smith.....Secretary
Worthington Houghton.....Treasurer

THE activities of the fraternities and sororities as organizations on campus are regulated and coördinated by the Interfraternity Council. The Council is composed of Dean Woods, Miss Brown, and the presidents of the fraternities and sororities, with a junior member from each group serving as alternate.

The Council prepares and applies rushing rules from year to year. This year it also sponsored three dances: the Intersorority Informal, and the Interfraternity Informal early in the fall; and the Interfraternity Prom in December. The Prom was held at the Congressional Country Club, and Dave MacWilliams' Orchestra provided the music.

Men's Athletics

THE Athletic set-up this year has comprised a more comprehensive program, more individually supervised. Mr. Paul Smith has taken over, and enlarged, the intramural athletic schedule. Mr. George Menke assists in the coaching of the football squad. Being a former player, he trains the linemen of A. U. capably. Dr. William Holton is chairman of the Faculty Athletic Committee, and coach of the tennis team.

Strengthened by the increased enrollment of men in the college, our athletic teams are establishing a firm foothold in the program of the University, and are building up their own strength with the years. The schedule for the major sports has been enlarged, and the new sports are being continued and added to.

Football

WITH a squad of twenty-seven men, fourteen of them freshmen, Coaches Walter Young and George Menke opened football practice the first week in September. Three weeks later the Eagles hung up their first victory of the season, and gave signs of being the most successful group of gridironers in the history of the institution. On November 9th they closed their season, not the most successful, but the most promising eleven which American University fans have ever witnessed.

The most hopeful factor of the 1935 football squad was its youthfulness. Only one man of the twenty-seven is a senior. The remainder have two or three more years of football service ahead of them.

In their three home engagements at Central Stadium, the Eagles attracted more local interest than ever before, playing before over ten thousand spectators. Added color was supplied by a new five-man cheering corps, the Metropolitan Police Boys' Band, and Leon Brusiloff's Marine Corps Musicians.

Another addition to the Eagle football games was the "Gridiron Sportscore," an eight-page football program, published by the Student Athletic Committee, with Lewis Frank as editor, Roger Barss as business manager, and Donald Pettus and Frederick Boyd as advertising managers.

Stage-fright before a powerful Shoreman eleven permitted Washington College men to run up a four-touchdown lead in the first fifteen minutes of play. For the remainder of the game the Eagles completely outplayed their rivals, holding them to 13 points, but the lead was too great to overcome.

Badly battered by their opponents of the previous Saturday, eleven men, no more, completely outplayed and outfought their traditional rivals in Death Valley at Farmville. Two unfortunate incidents, arising from the inexperience of the Eagles, were responsible for defeat. A tie might have been earned had Jack Rhodes' injury not kept his educated toe out of the game.

On October 19, the Eagles played their second home engagement at Central Stadium, and left the field victorious after an exciting battle. The Lifesavers were first to score when Cass drop-kicked a field goal. In the second quarter the Eagles scored when Toner out-punted Waldron in an exchange of kicks, and Dick carried the ball over in four plays.

The most disappointing contest of the year was this against Tody Riggs' eleven. The Eagles were unable to get underway, and at the half the Johnnies led, 13-0. The Eagles threatened late in the third period, and scored as the fourth quarter opened, but before they could get into the Johnnies' territory again, the Annapolis boys had run the count to 19-7.

Though slow in starting, the Eagles scored in the second period, and came out after the half to trounce the Blues by adding another three touchdowns. Walter Dick, American's sensational halfback, scored all the Eagle points, being ably supported by the second team. Coach Young kept his regulars safe from possible injury, looking forward to the Randolph-Macon game.

RANDOLPH-MACON 34
AMERICAN UNIVERSITY 7

Before a large homecoming crowd, the Eagles bowed to Virginia's only undefeated, once-tied team, lead not by its famous back, Jimmy Bair, but by a comparatively unknown sophomore, Al Paliscak. The Yellow-Jackets flashed one of the smoothest attacks seen in the District during the season, and the Eagles were never in the show.

THEY won four. They lost eleven. But don't weep. It was the most successful season our Eagle Basketeers have had in three years. Considering the number of injuries and illnesses which the boys encountered throughout the season, it wasn't so bad.

Training started slowly, with but three veterans, Captain Wheatley, Edwards and Leith, reporting at first practice. Promising newcomers were Benscoter, Toner and Zink. These six men, however, were unable to stop Hampden-Sydney in the opening game. Three nights later Maryland State Normal was vanquished in an overtime game. After vacation when the Eaglets faced Lynchburg College, two new men appeared in the line-up. They were Len Harris, a capable performer last year, and freshman Emerson Bartlett. With their aid a victory was hung up.

Despite the strain of examinations, the Eagles were in good enough form to lick Gallaudet College. In this game Pete Sitnik made his varsity debut as substitute for Benscoter. The Gallaudet clash terminated the promising winning streak. In the next ten games American University was on the losing end of the scores. On the night of March 7, the courtmen played their last game, and hung up their suits with a victory over the Alumni.

The season's letter winners were: high point scorer Wheatley, his diminutive rival Edwards, forwards Harris and Zink, centers Benscoter and Lee, and guard Bartlett. Others who saw service and devoted time and energy to the court cause were Gross, Sarles, Sitnik and Toner. George Scott was the Student Manager, assisted by Marvin May.

Captain Wheatley, because of his fine spirit, able leadership, and fighting brand of play, was awarded the "most valuable player" trophy at the annual spring Athletic Banquet.

Track

THE 1935 track squad was the first to represent American University in inter-collegiate track competition. Last year saw a creditable though losing performance of the team that was coached under great difficulties by Coach Paul Smith. Meets were held at Catholic University and Gallaudet.

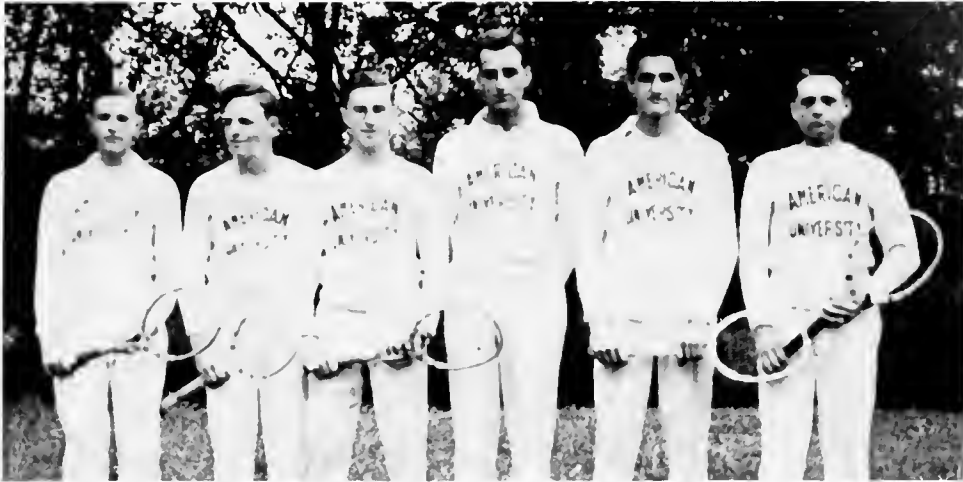

The men who received letter awards were Joseph Carlo and Howard Thompson, while Corkran, Branson, and Manager Leith were awarded numerals.

This year a larger and more experienced squad is undergoing more intensive training with Coach Young at the helm.

In its tennis outfit, American University has a team to which it can point with pride. Seven victories in as many starts is the impressive record of the 1935 tennis team, built from a handful of aspiring applicants by Coach William B. Holton and his assistant Seth Gordon.

The 1936 schedule of fifteen matches includes six new opponents: Swarthmore, Richmond, Johns Hopkins, Catawba, Hampden-Sydney, and Lynchburg.

The men on the 1936 squad are: Barss, Benscoter, L. Harris, H. Hudson, Lee, Livingston, W. May, R. Stevenson, C. Taylor, and Thrasher.

Men's Intramural Sports

THE intramural sports program for men was enlarged and reorganized this year under Coach Paul Smith who took over the entire program and directed it. Many men participated in the games, and class rivalry supplied the necessary interest.

HORSESHOES

The annual fall horseshoe tournament opened the season of intramural athletics. A good field entered, but as the abilities of the players were not then known, no one seeded. Wes Dodge was the winner and Albert Shaw the runner-up.

TOUCH FOOTBALL

The first intramural touch football series got under way in great style, with all classes well represented. The games were played in the afternoons of early fall on the field in front of the Women's Residence Hall. The Sophomores came through victorious, never losing a game, though they were scared several times. The results were:

	Wins	Losses		Wins	Losses
Sophomores.....	6	0	Freshmen.....	2	4
Seniors.....	3	2	Juniors.....	1	4

VOLLEYBALL

The pre-Christmas days were taken up with volleyball, in which the Sophs again outclassed the other teams to have an unbeaten record. Credit must be given to the two-man teams of the Juniors and Seniors, of which Worthy Houghton and Roger Barss were the cream, showing their stuff against the six-man teams of other classes.

PING-PONG

After the holidays, ping-pong held the center of attention. All matches were played in the men's lounge. The semi-finalists were Barss, Houghton, Sitnik, and Zink. Barss won from Houghton, Zink from Sitnik, and in the final championship match, a close one, Barss defeated Zink.

BASKETBALL

Intramural basketball is played by non-varsity players. Many of the games are preliminaries for the intercollegiate contests in the gym. At the beginning of the series, it looked as if the Sophs would take the title, but the Senior quint rose steadily to top place. Most of the games were extremely close and hard-fought, some being won by only two points.

	Wins	Losses		Wins	Losses
Seniors.....	5	1	Juniors.....	2	4
Sophomores.....	4	2	Freshmen.....	1	5

INTERFRATERNITY BASKETBALL

Phi Beta Zeta and Alpha Theta Phi both had varsity material on their teams, thus handicapping the Jesters and Independents. The Phi Betes swept through the series undefeated, thanks largely to Chick Yackel, Mel Wheatley, Hal Toner, and Skippy Edwards. Arthur Nylen of the Independents was the high-point scorer of the series.

The remainder of the intramural sports program for 1936 was devoted to marble shooting, kittenball, and another horseshoe tournament.

THE "A" Club is an honorary organization for the outstanding sportswomen of the College. The first event of the year was the annual color choosing ceremony. At this meeting, after games and refreshments, athletic plans for the year were outlined.

The club sponsors the intramural sports program for the women of the College and chooses leaders for the individual sports.

To further the idea of team work in hockey, the club presented awards to the members of the winning class team and to a few outstanding players from the other classes. Similar awards were given in basketball. A silver loving cup was awarded, for the first time since 1931, to the winning class team in hockey.

Virginia Slinn .....Treasurer

THE Eagle Hockey Club, headed by Alice Thompson, had a more successful season this year than ever before. In addition to the Washington Field Hockey Association games, against the Etceteras and Marjorie Webster, the Eagles participated in two field days at Maryland, which were attended by all the local colleges. A long standing ambition was realized when Marjorie Webster was tied in one game, and defeated 2-1 in the final game of the season. Bee Craig was chosen by the selection committee of the Washington Field Hockey Association as a member of the All-Washington team, on which she played wing and inner. In this capacity she went to the southeastern tournament at Philadelphia.

Women's Athletics

UNDER the second year of Miss Morse's capable management, women's sports showed marked progress in making for themselves a definite place on the campus. Sports of all kinds, from rough-and-tumble hockey to dancing, were provided to suit all tastes.

MAJOR SPORTS

Hockey

The hockey season was unusually long, the class teams playing through the series twice instead of once. The Juniors, captained by Margaret Woods, were "tops," with six wins and no losses. The classes stood:

	Wins	Losses		Wins	Losses
Juniors.....	6	0	Sophomores.....	2	4
Freshmen.....	3	3	Seniors.....	1	5

Following the interclass series came the annual Orange-Blue game, which the Orange team took, 4-1, their second win in two years.

The most colorful and best attended game was the contest between the "gals" and "guys" in which the femmes yielded to the invaders, 1-0.

Volleyball

Because of the long hockey season, the volleyball season was curtailed in order to finish before exams. In the one round series the Sophomores won out, taking all their games 2-0. The Juniors won two games, the Frosh one. Kitty Ingberg captained the visitors. The Oranges, headed by Margaret Courtney, added to their winning streak, by taking the Orange-Blue game, 2-0.

Basketball

In basketball the zone defense by guards was used for the first time. The Juniors came through the season unbeaten, using this system. Their closest game was a thriller with the Seniors, the final score being 10-9. Class standings were:

	Wins	Losses		Wins	Losses
Juniors.....	6	0	Freshmen.....	2	4
Sophomores.....	4	2	Seniors.....	0	6

In the Orange-Blue contest, the Oranges won their third victory of the year, 27-16.

Phi Mu came out on top of the intersorority play, winning all their games by large margins. Led by Kit Church, Delta Gamma came in second.

Peggy Walker captured high scoring honors with an even hundred points. Margaret Woods gained second place with sixty-nine, while Kit Church and Ruth Humphreys placed third and fourth.

MINOR SPORTS

The minor sports program this year featured a larger number of tournaments than before. In the ping-pong tournament, completed in March, Mildred Tabb was the victor. The runner-up was last year's winner, Frances Williams. Tennis and archery tournaments were also held later in the spring, and there was also a horse show for the riding class.

Dancers this year had their busiest season in the spring. George Washington University again sponsored a dance symposium for all local colleges, in which American University took part. After the symposium the dancers and Miss Morse centered their attention on preparations for the May Fete.
